We Mark Earth Day
An All Ages Worship
Sunday, April 24th, 2022

On this Sunday closest to Earth Day we are invited to ponder our relationship to the 'web of life', and how we might respond to the demand of our faith to care for creature & creation.

We will be joined by milkweed gardener & butterfly caretaker : Dawn Westhaver.

10:30am in the PUC Sanctuary or through our Facebook  Live-Stream with post-worship posting to YouTube

ay is 'Earth Day'. Founded in 1970, today Earth Day is a global movement for change. Indeed 'our house is on fire' – in the words of Greta Thunberg. Earth Day reminds us of our connectedness to and our responsibility for creation and creature. "Invest in Our Planet" is the 2022 Earth Day theme.

Though it seems logical that every day should be earth day, in that the interdependence between planet and people is critical, I invite us to intentionally act TODAY to invest in our planet. What might you do? Well that is up to you! If there are others in your household; talk about it and make a commitment. If there are friends you enjoy spending time with; perhaps you can find a common project. However you decide to "invest", I also invite you to share your commitment or pictures on our PUC Facebook page.

As we gather in worship this Sunday (April 24th), we will join in an ALL AGES Worship, for the care for creation is all of our responsibility and, not matter our age, we all can do something. So it is that we will be joined by friend and gardener Dawn Vesthaver who will help us put our good thoughts into action as she shares the story of one endangered species- the Monarch Butterfly- and how we can invest in them.

Hope you will join us.

Mary-Beth

Deep peace of the running wave to you
Deep peace of the flowing air to you Deep peace of the quiet earth to you Deep peace of the shining stars to you
Deep peace of the gentle night to you Moon and stars
pour their healing light on you...
Deep peace to you.
