Subject: It is Friday and Tonight "The Phantom" and then All Hallows Eve- All Saints- All Souls... it is a full weekend here at PUC!!

*From ghoulies and ghosties and long-legged beasties
and all things that go bump in the night,
Good Lord, deliver us.
Amen.*

a traditional prayer for All Hallows' Eve- remembered in many parts of Britain

It is that time of year. That time of "thin spaces", as our Celtic Ancestors would remind us. A time when the veil between heaven and earth, life and death, is removed and mystery touches us. A time where traditions and feasts and festivities, ancient and new, are fused into one: Samhain; All Hallows' Eve; Halloween; All Hallows' Day- All Saints- All Souls.. And so it is that as we gather this Sunday on All Hallows' Eve- Halloween, our worship will be woven by these feasts and festivities. In worship we will also take the time to remember and honour those Saints and saints of our lives. Those whose lives and loved touched our lives. Those who are our "holy ones".

So just a few notes regarding Sunday's worship:

** Our children and youth will be with us in worship and then move downstairs for a 'All Hallows- Halloween' gathering and so they are invited, if they wish, to wear a costume to church.

** if the older ones amongst us would also like to wear a costume- go for it!

I saw a colleague's post this week where the invitation for this Sunday was to dress up as you did during COVID when worship was only online (pjs; sweat pants LOL!)

** Also, during our All Saints- All Souls time of remembering, we will be using fall leaves. If you are joining us online for worship, please take a moment to get a fall leaf that you can hold in worship.

A reminder that TONIGHT (Friday, October 29th) is our first ever PHANTOM OF THE ORGAN Musical Evening featuring musical offerings from renowned organists, some of our favourite singers and our PUC Choir.

Hope to see you at 7pm.

There is much happening at PUC and it is good.
So share the good news! We are a spirit-filled people!
Not only at this time of the year but always!

Mary-Beth
